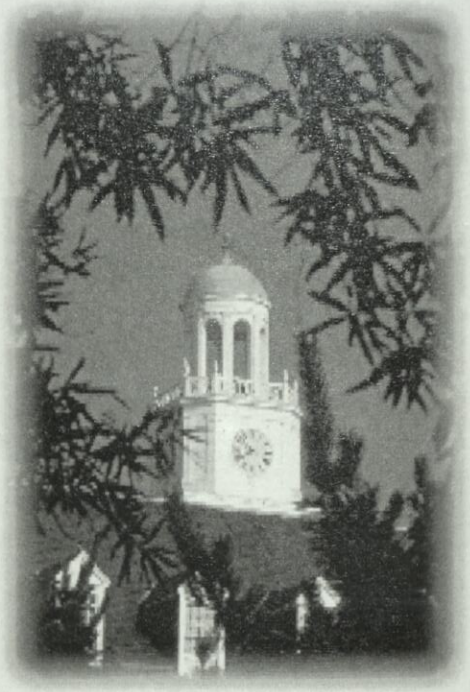
SSU's campus is in an attractive, residential neighborhood of stately homes on sculpted lawns, less than one-half mile from the banks of the Wicomico River. The campus includes 34 buildings on 125 landscaped acres. Students walk from one end of campus to the other in about 5 minutes.



Head Coach Gerry DiBartolo

The 1998 season proved to be a landmark campaign for Head Coach Gerry DiBartolo of the Salisbury State University soccer program. DiBartolo became the winningest coach in the program's 62-year history while also leading the Sea Gulls to a school-record 15 wins. DiBartolo guided his squad to its seventh straight winning season and its fifth straight appearance in the conference championship game. He completed his 17th season with a 15-4-1 record and a 160-120-23 career mark.

The Sea Gulls have won 10 or more games each year since 1992. During that span, DiBartolo's teams have collected one conference championship ('92), one postseason appearance (ECAC, '93) and a regular season conference title ('94). The Sea Gulls have also played in the Capital Athletic Conference's championship game for five straight years.

Coming off a superb 13-2-1 season in 1992, DiBartolo was named the NSCAA\Umbro South Atlantic Coach of the Year. He followed with another strong campaign in 1993 as the Gulls posted 11 wins and earned their first postseason bid since 1985. Salisbury State finished as the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) South Region runnerup. In 1994, he was named Coach of the Year in the Capital Athletic Conference as the Sea Gulls finished first in the regular season with a 6-0-1 mark.

Honors, awards and championships are nothing new for the well-respected Sea Gull mentor. DiBartolo was tabbed Maryland Small College Coach of the Year in 1983 and 1984 as the Gulls captured the Maryland State Championship both seasons. He also led Salisbury State to the Eastern States Athletic Conference (ESAC) championship in 1987 and 1992, and was recognized as the ESAC's Coach of the Year in 1992.

A 1975 graduate of Frostburg State University, where he played for four seasons and captained the team as a senior, DiBartolo worked two years as the assistant coach there before moving to the Eastern Shore. He served as a Sea Gull assistant for three seasons before taking over as head coach in 1982. DiBartolo served as chair of the ECAC's Division III South Tournament selection committee, and is currently chair of the NSCAA Men's Senior College Coach of the Year Committee.

In addition to his soccer duties, DiBartolo teaches in SSU's Franklin P. Perdue School of Business, where he also serves as the associate dean. DiBartolo earned his D.B.A. from The George Washington University in 1995. He and his wife, Mary, have two children, Dominic and Anthony, and reside in Salisbury.

Assistant Coach

Brian Polczynski

Former Sea Gull letterman Brian Polczynski completed his sixth season as an assistant coach during the 1998 season. The Waldorf, MD, native transferred to Salisbury State prior to the 1991 season and was SSU's starting goalie for the '91 and '92 seasons. He ranks third on Salisbury's all-time shutout list with 14, including eight shutouts in 1992 when he finished with a 0.68 goals against average. Polczynski works primarily with the goalkeepers and the defense.

CAPITAL ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

Gulls Enjoy Record-Setting '98 Season

Salisbury State completed the most successful season in the 62-year history of Sea Gull soccer with a record-setting 1998 campaign. The Gulls broke several team and individual marks during a 15-4-1 season that ended with a fifth consecutive appearance in the Capital Athletic Conference Championship game.

SSU's 15 victories established a new single-season record for wins, eclipsing the mark of 13 set in 1992. The Gulls also set a new record for consecutive wins with an eight-game winning streak over the second half of the season. That winning streak, coupled with a tie against Johns Hopkins (ranked fourth in the nation) and one other victory, also tied the team record for longest unbeaten streak, 10 games.

Included in that 10-game stretch were three consecutive overtime wins which put the Gulls in contention for one of the South Region's four NCAA Tournament berths. SSU would eventually fall shy in its quest for the NCAA postseason, but the Gulls did post significant wins over regionally ranked teams like Dickinson, Eastern Mennonite, Shenandoah, Christopher Newport and Washington & Lee. In addition, one of SSU's four losses was a 2-1 overtime defeat against Greensboro, which finished as the national runnerup in 1998.

SSU's success was reflected at both ends of the field. The Gulls set a new season scoring record with 63 goals, including a new single-game record of 13 in a conference victory over Gallaudet. Senior Mike Giuffrida capped his career as SSU's second all-time goal scorer with 37 goals and third all-time scorer with 93 points. Giuffrida, who has previously won all-region and academic all-America honors, added to his award chest by earning CAC Player of the Year honors, and NSCAA third-team All-America status in 1998.

A number of other Sea Gulls also figured prominently in SSU's landmark season. Freshman Paul Kelly won the conference's Rookie of the Year award after leading the Gulls and the CAC in scoring with 14 goals, seven assists and 35 points. He recorded the second highest single-season point total in team history. At the other end of the field, sophomore goalie Mike Svehla became SSU's new shutout king. He tied the single-season record with nine whitewashes in 1998, and upped his career shutout total to 17, breaking Dan Coleman's 13-year-old career record.

Giuffrida and Kelly were joined on the all-conference team by two other members of the defense.

Sophomore back Darren LaRocque was the third Sea Gull named to the CAC first team, while senior back Kevin Rhodes received second team honors.

Not to be overlooked, Head Coach Gerry DiBartolo also achieved some significant milestones. The 17-year coaching veteran recorded his 150th win during the season, and also finished the year as the winningest coach in SSU soccer history. He finished the year with 160 career wins, passing longtime Sea Gull mentor Benn Maggs.

SSU's Decade of Success

With 85 wins over the past seven seasons, the Salisbury State University men's soccer program has clearly enjoyed its most successful period ever in its 62-year history. Each of the past seven seasons has yielded new records, milestones and accomplishments. Starting with the 1992 season, the Sea Gulls have continually built on their success. Up to that point, 1992 was the most successful season in SSU soccer history. In addition to setting a school record with 13 victories, the Gulls won the Eastern States Athletic Conference Championship, and also claimed the unofficial Maryland Division III title with a 4-0 record against in-state competition.

TOTAL	160-120-23

As an encore in 1993, the Sea Gulls earned their first postseason bid since 1985, finishing as the ECAC South Region runnersup. SSU won 10 of its final 13 regular season games to earn the bid, and enjoyed a school-record 10-game unbeaten string (nine wins and one tie) during the season. The offense set a new school record for goals scored, while the defense posted six shutouts during the year. Once again, SSU also won all four of its games against in-state competition.

In 1994, the Sea Gulls moved into a new conference, the Capital Athletic Conference, and promptly claimed the league's regular season title. SSU snapped Mary Washington's 30-match CAC winning streak, and posted a nine-game unbeaten streak while registering a 12-3-3 overall record. Along the way, the Gulls once again set a new team scoring record and tied the season record of 10 shutouts. Another unblemished record against in-state competition upped Salisbury's mark to 12-0 against Maryland rivals over a three-year span.

The Sea Gull program reached another milestone during the 1995 campaign as junior Matt Tirschman earned all-America honors, becoming just the second SSU player to ever be recognized on the national team. Tirschman, who scored 10 goals and added 11 assists during the '95 campaign, helped lead the Gulls to an 11-7 overall finish and a second consecutive runnerup trophy in the conference.

The Sea Gulls added 12 victories in 1996, and once again enjoyed streaks of success. Led by conference Player of the Year Tirschman, the Gulls advanced to the conference championship game for the third consecutive year. SSU also continued its recent success against in-state competition with a 4-0-1 record against Maryland teams.

SSU completed another 12-victory campaign in 1997, with junior Mike Giuffrida filling the void as the team's designated record-setter. Giuffrida snapped a 25-year-old record, the team's oldest individual mark—most points in a season—by finishing the year with 36 points. He guided the Gulls through a 6-1 conference season and another berth in the CAC Championship Game.

The 1998 season provided another assault on the recordbook during a 15-4-1 campaign. In addition to a school record for wins in a season, SSU set a new record for consecutive wins with an eight-game winning streak and tied the mark for longest unbeaten streak, 10. Individually, goalie Mike Svehla broke the career shutout record, while Giuffrida was named conference Player of the Year.

SSU's Athletics Philosophy

Salisbury State University, a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's (NCAA) Division III, offers 19 intercollegiate sports for men and women. In addition to NCAA membership, SSU competes as a member of the Capital Athletic Conference (CAC) and the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC).

As a member of the NCAA's Division III, Salisbury State places the highest priority on the overall quality of the educational experience. In doing so, it seeks to strengthen the integration of objectives and programs in athletics with academic and developmental objectives, and to assure the integration of athletes with other students.

SSU places special importance on the impact of athletics on the participants, with emphasis on the internal constituency (students, alumni and special friends) rather than on the general public and its entertainment needs.

The SSU athletics program is further characterized by the following principles:

- Participants receive the same treatment as other students. They have no unique privileges in admission, academic advising, course selection, grading, living accommodations or financial aid. Similarly, athletes are not denied rights and opportunities that would be available to them as non-athletes.
- Sports for men and women are given equal emphasis and the desired quality of competition is similar in all sports.
- Students are supported in their efforts to reach high levels of performance by providing them with adequate facilities, competent coaching and appropriate competitive opportunities with students from similar institutions.
- SSU strives to make the student-athlete's participation in intercollegiate athletics an enriching experience, and holds genuine concern for each participant's welfare. The intercollegiate program's foremost goal at all times is to supplement and enrich the first priority of the University, which is academic accomplishment.
